The applicant

Name/company:

Street/house no:

Postal code/City:

intends to arrange formal delivery of documents to the holder domiciled abroad of the domain

For this purpose I ask DENIC to request the domain holder to name an authorised recipient for the service of documents resident in Germany, who has the same rights as defined for an authorised recipient in terms of Article 184 of the German Code of Civil Procedure (Zivilprozessordnung), and to communicate the name and the address of the appointed person to the applicant's or my e-mail address:

- A DISPUTE entry for the domain has been set in the name of the applicant.
- The applicant has submitted an application for a DISPUTE entry for the domain to DENIC; the application has not yet been decided on.
- An application by the applicant to set a DISPUTE entry for the domain is attached to this application.

Information about the holder of the domain was provided by DENIC to the applicant within the last month. A copy of the corresponding e-mail from DENIC is attached.

- The applicant owns an absolute right (for instance to a name or trademark) that the applicant believes to be violated by the domain. Documentary evidence substantiating this right is attached.
The applicant assures that they are having or preparing for a dispute with the domain holder with the aim to have the domain deleted or transferred.

If I am not the applicant myself, I hereby assure that I am the applicant's legal representative or that I am authorised by the applicant to submit this application. I am fully aware that DENIC can request documentary evidence of my legal power of representation or a power of attorney to be submitted as a condition for further processing this application.
